SAMPLE EXPERIENCE

Data Protection Officer for a company specialising in outsourced business solutions. Nicola was responsible for two complex businesses – one which dealt with a large amount of medical data and another which handled high volumes of commercially sensitive data. The primary aspect of Nicola's role was to ensure GDPR and DPA compliance, whilst balancing these requirements alongside client need and commercial objectives. She developed policies and procedures to ensure compliance with current legislation and provided complex technical advice relating to all information governance matters, including the development of intricate information sharing and data processing agreements.
