

ENO

DATA PROTECTION OFFICER

SPECIALISMS

- ✓ Financial sector
- ✓ Data Subject Access Requests (DSARs)
- ✓ Data processing agreements
- ✓ Data subject rights - general
- ✓ Retail sector
- ✓ Special category data
- ✓ Consent
- ✓ Legitimate interest/LIA
- ✓ Clinical trials
- ✓ Education - higher education
- ✓ Hospitality
- ✓ Biotech/Pharmaceuticals

PROFILE

Eno is a certified GDPR Practitioner and experienced Data Protection Officer with a Master's degree in Law (LL. M.) from University College London. As one of The DPO Centre's longest serving Data Protection Officers, Eno acts for a variety of large, complex clients in a range of sectors, both as an outsourced primary DPO and lead on Impact Assessment and Consultancy projects.

Eno is an excellent analyst and strategic thinker and has developed and diversified her specialism in Privacy and Data Protection, gaining a broad range of experience including International Commodity Trading, FMCG, Telecoms and Commercial Property.

QUALIFICATIONS

- ✓ IAPP CIPP/E
- ✓ GDPR Practitioner Training
- ✓ LLS – The Solicitors Finals – Guildford College of Law
- ✓ LL. M. – Master's Degree in Law – University College, London
- ✓ LL. B. – Law Degree – University College of Wales, Aberystwyth

SAMPLE EXPERIENCE

Primary Data Protection Officer for major clinical research organisations, helping them to continue to develop cutting-edge solutions in the clinical trial environment whilst building strong privacy compliance programs.

Lead consultant and Data Protection Officer for a national clothing retailer, playing a pivotal role in re-shaping and re-developing their marketing strategy, whilst ensuring they continue to remain compliant with privacy regulations.

Senior CRM consultant for Deloitte, specialising in organisations' transformation through strategic change management.