

SHANE

DATA PROTECTION OFFICER

TECH & SECURITY SECTOR LEAD

SPECIALISMS

- ✓ Automated decision-making
- ✓ Breaches/risk assessments
- ✓ Certification (Cyber Essentials, ISO)
- ✓ Cyber security
- ✓ Financial sector
- ✓ Information security
- ✓ Data processing agreements
- ✓ Website security
- ✓ Back up and Disaster Recovery

PROFILE

Shane is a certified GDPR Practitioner with experience in developing, implementing, and auditing data protection frameworks and programmes. With a background in Financial Services, Shane brings with him a wealth of sector specific knowledge, as well as expertise in dealing with IT vendors, network security, Cloud infrastructure, SaaS, DRaaS and application security.

Shane has been a Data Protection Officer for multiple organisations in a variety of industry verticals where he has taken a proactive approach to promoting a data protection awareness culture. He has a particular interest in risk management with regard to combatting unauthorised access, viruses, and a wide range of vulnerabilities and threats.

QUALIFICATIONS

- ✓ GDPR Practitioner Training
- ✓ BA. Hons. – Business and Law Degree – De Montfort University, Leicester

SAMPLE EXPERIENCE

As Data Protection Officer for an FCA regulated insurance underwriter, Shane produced and reviewed key documentation including Policies, Standards, Contracts, Data Sharing Agreements and Control frameworks.

Also responsible for preparing and implementing information security standards/ISMS - Cyber Essentials, ISO 27001 for global logistics organisation providing courier service, desktide support and distribution management systems.

Consultant to a global digital communications partner delivering in house counsel on SCCs and data sharing agreements and helping to create an employee training and awareness program.