

CHRIS

DATA PROTECTION OFFICER

SPECIALISMS

- ✓ Healthcare Sector
- ✓ Breaches
- ✓ Special Category Data

PROFILE

Chris is an experienced Group Data Protection Officer building on over 18 years of diverse knowledge in the handling and processing of sensitive medical records within operational environments. Chris retains an excellent reputation for problem solving and improving service delivery, together with a track record of meeting company goals through the provision of practical risk-based guidance. He is strategically minded, addressing the challenges of data protection to achieve the best outcome for the client. Chris is also well versed in cyber and information security.

QUALIFICATIONS

- ✓ Post Graduate Certificate in Data Protection/Information Rights Law
- ✓ GDPR Foundation Course

SAMPLE EXPERIENCE

Group Data Protection Officer/Information Governance Lead for a leading forensic healthcare specialist. Chris was responsible for establishing, monitoring, and developing procedures to ensure compliance with all relevant legal, constitutional, and regulatory requirements including the Data Protection Act 2018, Freedom of Information Act 2000, and the Health and Social Care Information Centre (HSCIC) regulations. Chris directed a strategic view over a network of companies, reviewing and horizon scanning to ensure future adherences to potential legislation and risk mitigation.

Chris developed and delivered training and an awareness plan which demonstrated the key principles of GDPR requirements. Educating staff to ensure that supported organisations are compliant with the Data Security and Protection Toolkit (DPST).