SAMPLE EXPERIENCE

Corporate Contract Specialist with data protection focus at a private healthcare insurance provider. The role centred heavily around installing a culture of compliance throughout the business. Dana prepared and responded to client data protection enquiries, reducing response times by streamlining the process and ensuring a uniform response across all insurance contracts. Dana produced and implemented data processing records regarding marketing and the sharing of personal information and was also responsible for liaising with legal counsel, specialist consultants and other areas of the business to provide up-to-date, comprehensive support in all contractual matters.
