

HARRIET

DATA PROTECTION OFFICER

SPECIALISMS

- ✓ Healthcare
- ✓ Special category data
- ✓ DPST toolkit
- ✓ DSARs
- ✓ Public sector
- ✓ Charities

PROFILE

Harriet is an enthusiastic and experienced data protection professional with a strong background in the healthcare sector. As an LL.B. Law graduate and qualified GDPR Practitioner, Harriet has over six years' experience in working in privacy, gaining valuable expertise in all facets of the role of the Data Protection Officer. In addition, having worked in the NHS for most of her career, she brings with her a wealth of knowledge around Caldicott Guardianship and the DSPT toolkit.

Harriet is passionate about continuing to develop her knowledge and pursuing new opportunities to enhance her personal skills and challenge her understanding. She is also an exceptional communicator who is comfortable working alongside stakeholders at all levels.

QUALIFICATIONS

- ✓ GDPR Practitioner Course
- ✓ LL.B. Law
- ✓ Legal Practice Course (MSc) - Law, Business and Management

SAMPLE EXPERIENCE

Information Governance Manager and Data Protection Officer for a major NHS mental health care provider. Harriet worked alongside key stakeholders to support the implementation and management of the organisation's Information Governance requirements and coordinated the annual DSPT submission. She was also responsible for creating and maintaining key documentation such as their Records of Processing Activities and Data Protection Impact Assessments, as well as providing specialist data protection advice across departments.

Quality and Governance Facilitator for a private hospital. Alongside responsibility for the DSPT submission, Harriet was involved in collating evidence to demonstrate adherence to ISO 27001 standards. She was also in charge of researching and implementing new practices to comply with novel legislation throughout the hospital and provided support in relation to the hospital audit programme, patient safety and clinical effectiveness.