

ENO

DATA PROTECTION OFFICER ACADEMY TRAINING MANAGER

SPECIALISMS

- ✓ Financial sector
- ✓ Commercial consumer business
- ✓ Clinical Trials
- ✓ Biotech & Pharmaceuticals
- ✓ Market research

PROFILE

Eno is a certified GDPR practitioner and experienced Data Protection Officer with a Master's degree in Law (LL. M.). She acts as a primary DPO and leads impact assessment and consultancy projects for a variety of large, complex organisations in a range of sectors.

Eno is a highly skilled analyst and a strategic thinker with extensive expertise in privacy and data protection for commercial organisations. She has developed a diverse knowledge base and possesses a broad range of experience. Eno specialises in marketing and consumer business, with significant contributions in sectors such as retail, hospitality, property, FMCG, telecoms, and large-scale motor manufacturing.

QUALIFICATIONS

- ✓ CIPP/E Certificate
- ✓ CIPM Certificate
- ✓ GDPR Practitioner Certificate
- ✓ The Solicitors Final, Guildford College of Law
- ✓ Master of Laws (LL. M.), University College London
- ✓ Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.)

SAMPLE EXPERIENCE

Eno is the lead consultant and DPO for a major global property organisation, helping to establish a global privacy framework that complies with regulations across multiple jurisdictions.

In the field of marketing, Eno has provided general contractual advice to a host of organisations. She has helped to create competitive advantages, re-shaped marketing campaigns, and built trustworthy reputations, whilst still maintaining compliance with regulations.

As a former senior CRM consultant for a multinational professional services company, Eno was integral in driving organisational transformations through strategic change management.