

ABISOLA

DATA PROTECTION SUPPORT OFFICER

LANGUAGES

- ✓ English (native)

PROFILE

Abisola is a highly organised and ambitious data protection professional with a Master's degree in Special and Inclusive Education. With an extensive background in Education, she is adept at balancing responsibilities and contributing to a supportive and collaborative work environment.

Using her broad compliance experience and collaborative skills, Abisola works closely with clients to deliver successful outcomes.

Abisola thrives on accuracy and applies meticulous research to her work. Her broad experience, combined with her thorough approach, enables her to provide vital support to the wider team and drive successful project delivery.

QUALIFICATIONS

- ✓ MA in Special and Inclusive Education

SAMPLE EXPERIENCE

As a Data Protection Support Officer (DPSO), Abisola helps deliver school audits, Records of Processing Activities (RoPAs), Data Protection Impact Assessments (DPIAs), and Data Subject Access Requests (DSARs) for clients across a range of sectors. By keeping up to date on regulation changes, she can advise organisations on their data protection obligations.

Abisola is a former Trainee Data Protection Officer (TDPO) in our DPO Academy, where she gained valuable experience across the data compliance spectrum. She honed her data protection skills by completing compliance audits, reviewing and drafting privacy policies, and developing her knowledge of international transfer regulations. Abisola's extensive work on GDPR compliance enables her to complete complex data protection tasks quickly and to a high standard.