SAMPLE EXPERIENCE

Working as the primary Data Protection Officer for multiple clinical trial sponsors, Lawrence has worked with clients across the world to ensure their multi-jurisdictional trials meet the high standards of EU and UK GDPR. He guides organisations through trial application processes, ensuring all submissions, assessments, informed consent forms, and other documents are in place to satisfy the requirements of both clinical trial and data protection legislation.

Lawrence previously worked as an Information Governance Manager for an NHS Trust, ensuring compliance with UK data protection legislation. Working alongside key senior stakeholders, Lawrence lead the creation and implementation of Information Governance policies and procedures and was responsible for preparing the Trust's annual Data Security and Protection Toolkit (DSPT) submission.
