SAMPLE EXPERIENCE

Working as an outsourced DPO for Clinical Trials, Manufacturing, and Automotive companies, Katrina implements and maintains data protection frameworks that complement existing obligations. She provides technical guidance on country-specific legislation, manages international data transfers, and reviews data processing agreements to ensure compliance with data protection regulations.

Katrina previously worked across Retail, AdTech, SaaS, and various start-up businesses. She has conducted compliance audits to identify vulnerabilities, developed actionable solutions, and implemented company-wide privacy programmes, including procedures for data subject rights requests, breach management, training, and third-party management.
