SAMPLE EXPERIENCE

As Senior Vice President within the Global Privacy Office of a multinational financial services organisation, Aga led major regulatory change projects, conducted Privacy Impact Assessments (PIAs), and reviewed vendor and client contracts. She also managed data subject rights requests, monitored GDPR compliance, and oversaw EMEA-wide privacy obligations.

Previously, Aga worked as a Legal Assignee at a global investment bank. Her role included supporting GDPR implementation, drafting privacy notices for clients and employees, and conducting privacy reviews for international clients. This work supported regulatory notifications and consistent global policy alignment.
