SAMPLE EXPERIENCE

Dave has a strong background in property management, banking, and market research. He provides expert advice on international data transfers, balancing FCA requirements with data protection regulations, and developing comprehensive policies and procedures. He also reviews Data Processing Agreements (DPAs) and privacy provisions within other contracts, such as customer portfolio acquisitions.

Working within the EMEA region, Dave assists organisations in applying GDPR provisions to various mechanisms used in market research within the Healthcare and Political sectors. Coordinating with regional and divisional teams, he ensures the successful implementation of Records of Processing Activities (RoPAs) and Data Privacy Impact Assessments (DPIAs).
