SAMPLE EXPERIENCE

As a DPM, Maxwell assists with data protection audits, risk assessments, RoPA maintenance, and DSAR reviews. He supports the development of governance frameworks, policy documentation, and client training, working under the guidance of DPOs to deliver effective, business-focused compliance solutions.

Having successfully completed The DPO Centre DPO Academy programme, Maxwell now supports client-facing work as a Data Protection Manager (DPM). As Legal and Regulatory Manager for a telecomms infrastructure provider, he served as the organisation's Data Protection Supervisor, overseeing data privacy practices and aligning them with national legislation. He also acted as an Associate at a leading law firm in Ghana, supporting clients across M&A, governance, and cross-border commercial matters.
