SAMPLE EXPERIENCE

As a Customer Complaints Case Handler in the Financial sector, Emmanuel collaborated with legal teams to address data-related issues and managed the full life cycle of Data Subject Access Requests (DSARs). He provided insights on recurring data privacy issues, contributing to procedural improvements.

As a Research Team Lead for a data retention management platform, Emmanuel analysed global frameworks across more than 250 jurisdictions. He developed compliant data retention schedules, created detailed documentation to support future policy adherence, and advised organisations from multiple industry sectors on best practices for regulatory compliance.
