SAMPLE EXPERIENCE

As the primary DPO for a leading wealth and asset management firm, Michael ensures comprehensive compliance standards whilst managing intricate data sharing and international transfer processes. He also leads the development and implementation of robust privacy frameworks across the company's portfolio of services. Michael understands the nuances of the financial services industry and can navigate relevant regulations, including those set by the FCA, alongside data protection compliance.

Michael has acted as an Interim Group DPO for a range of businesses, including a global news organisation and a major mobile network operator. He ensured compliance with GDPR and multi-jurisdictional data protection regulations, whilst overseeing all aspects of data governance.
