SAMPLE EXPERIENCE

As the primary DPO for a clinical trials sponsor, Dana provides tailored advice on all aspects of data protection compliance and guides the organisation through the complexities of multi-jurisdictional regulations. She ensures contractual agreements and legal documents contain the required terms and are accurately maintained.

Dana assisted a professional services organisation in implementing a robust data protection framework. She created a suite of data protection policies, conducted risk assessments and third-party due diligence, and collaborated with key stakeholders to enhance their privacy awareness.

Previously, Dana worked as a Corporate Contract Specialist at a private healthcare insurance provider. She provided comprehensive support in all contractual matters, focusing on compliance with data protection requirements.
